Agro Tech Foods Limited

evaluated and it shall be determined whether to extend or continue the term of appointment of the independent director.

10. Disclosures, other directorships and business interests

It is accepted and acknowledged that Independent Directors have business interests other than those of the Company and have declared conflicts, if any that are apparent at present. In the event that Independent Directors become aware of any potential conflict of interest with their position as Director of the Company, they shall promptly disclose the same to the Chairman and the Company Secretary and provide such other disclosures and information as may be required under the applicable laws. By signing this letter, the Independent Directors hereby confirm that as on date of this letter, they have no such conflict of interests with their existing directorships.

Upon any change in circumstances which may affect their status as an Independent Director, they agree to promptly provide a declaration under Section 149(7) of the Act.

11. Membership of other boards

It is expected that Independent Directors will not serve on the Boards of competing companies. Apart from the applicable law and good corporate governance practices, there are no other additional limitations.

12. Information on meetings

12.1 Scheduling and selection of agenda items for Board Meetings

Dates for Board meeting for the ensuing year are decided in advance. Normally, the Board meets once in a quarter to review the quarterly results and other items on agenda. Additional meetings are held based on need.

12.2 Availability of information to the Board

The Board has full and unfettered access to any information of the Company, and to any employee of the Company. At Board Meetings, the Board may invite Leadership Team Members of the Company when additional details into the items being discussed are required.

12.3 Independent directors' discussion

Annually and when required, the Independent Directors meet without the presence of Non-Independent Directors and members of the Management. At this meeting, the Independent Directors inter alia evaluate the performance of the Non-Independent Directors and the Board of Directors as a whole, evaluate the performance of the Chairman of the Board and discuss aspects relating to the quality, quantity and timeliness of the flow of information between the Company, the Management and the Board.

13. Mechanism for evaluating Board Members:

The Chairperson of Nomination and Remuneration Committee shall conduct an annual Board evaluation and a peer evaluation survey to assess the performance of the Board and the Committees as a whole and that of the individual Board and Committee members. Performance is assessed based on clearly defined objective criteria as decided by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee.

Some of the performance indicators based on which the independent directors are evaluated are:

- (a) ability to contribute to and monitor our corporate governance practices;
- (b) ability to contribute by introducing international best practices to address top management issues;
- (c) active participation in long term strategic planning;
- (d) commitment to the fulfillment of Director's obligations; and
- (e) fiduciary responsibilities
- (f) Independence, Independent views and judgement
